

In this blend, Sangiovese is united with two French varieties: Merlot and Cabernet Franc. While the former brings structure and length, the two international varieties delicately enrich the wine in aromas and softness. This is how a fresh and elegant wine is born, one that is suitable to drink immediately or to age in the bottle at home.

Aged for one year in 15hl French Allier barriques and in Slavonian oak barrels, it appears deep ruby red with bright purplish highlights. On the nose, intense with hints of red-fleshed fruit and pleasant spicy notes. On the palate, enveloping and structured, balanced by perfect freshness and velvety tannins.
